

Inverted Microscopes

Ideal for live cell or tissue culture examinations in college, university, and clinical-laboratory settings

- Phase contrast and Brightfield capabilities
- Large Stage Surface
- Angled Nosepiece
- Aluminum Die-Cast Base
- Coaxial and fine focus with tension control
- Siedentopf binocular tube
- Optional mechanical stage with clips and four plate inserts
- Four-position nosepiece with selected interference filter
- Switchable power supply (110-220V)
- Manufacturer's limited 5-year warranty on optical and mechanical components, and one year on electrical components

All Thomas Inverted Microscopes are supplied with binocular tube with 10X.20mm FOV eyepieces, condenser, dust cover, plastic eyecups and manual.

Thomas No.	Description	Each
1235C11	Binocular, Phase	1